

town & country planning

The Journal of the Town and Country Planning Association

May 2016
Vol. 85 • No. 5

Chris Shepley: Good things emerge from the LPEG

Andrew Pritchard: Johnny Mercer and the glass half-full Janice Morphet: Local authorities build housing again...

Richard Turkington and Jon Herbert : Planning for housing – time for ‘smarter’ SHMAs

Gavin Parker and Kat Salter: Five years of neighbourhood planning – a review of take-up and distribution

Richard Cowell and Susan Owens: The EU referendum, planning and the environment

Peter Fawcett and John Sturzaker: Rediscovering place for social town planning

Peter Jones, David Hillier and Daphne Comfort: Assessing planning reform

regulars

Kate Henderson: On the Agenda

Anne Findlay and Leigh Sparks: Trading Places

David Lock: Off the Fence

David Boyle: Going Local

Bob Pritchard: Legal Eye

Olivier Sykes and Andreas Schulze Bäing: The Euro-Files

Paul Burall: Connections